

Dear Students,

we would like to announce the upcoming round of the additional recruitment for mobility within the Erasmus+ Study Programme to be carried out in the summer semester of the academic year 2021/2022.

The procedure is the same as in the basic recruitment. First, the Candidate reads the Regulations and the Dean's Announcement available at: <http://dziennikarstwo.uni.wroc.pl/studenci/erasmus/dokumenty/> Complete documentation should be submitted during the office consultation hours of the Program Coordinator, Dr. Pawel Baranowski. Consultation hours for the winter semester will be posted shortly at:

<http://dziennikarstwo.uni.wroc.pl/instytut/wykladowcy/pawel-baranowski/>

At the same time, we would like to inform you that you can only apply for a mobility to the universities whose symbols are given in the list below and according to the availability of studies within the Erasmus programme at a given level.

To verify the available level of study and to expand the legend of the abbreviation of the university name, please refer to the document "List of host universities Erasmus+ Studies 2019-2020" (still valid) available at:

http://dziennikarstwo.uni.wroc.pl/userfiles/files/studenci/Erasmus\_2019-2020\_EN/The%20list%20of%20host%20universities%2C%20Erasmus%2B%20Studies%2C%202019-2020\(3\).pdf.pdf)

The level of study has been marked according to the formula:

- 1- undergraduate,
- 2- Master's degree,
- 3- doctoral.

E.g. CH BERN01, 1; means that you can only apply for a part of undergraduate studies; and e.g. CH BASEL01, 2,3; - that you can only apply for a part of master's or doctoral studies.

When choosing a university, pay attention to the deadline for the university to accept applications for the summer semester. In order to do so, check the deadlines on the university's website, contact the university directly or contact the International Office.
